The Granger in Love.

- Oh, come, my love, and live with me, And keep my cottage in the glen, As patient as a bumble-bee,
- And busy as a setting hen. Oh, rest beneath my fragrant bower
- Where sweet stramonium doth entwine Come, smell the gentle cauliflower
- And call the mangel-wurzel vine. Ab, listen to the rural songe!
- The pea shall wind its magic shell, As Ecuo plaintively prolongs
- The warble of the pimpernel. Reyond the vermicelli row I hear the buil frog's sigh again-
- The cackle of the Durham ewe-The bellow of the Berkshire hen.
- Oh, come, love, come! the morn is fair. I'll celebrate the day with thee : I'll merrity dig the Bartlett pear,
- And shake the ruta-buga tree. Oh, hump yourself, my lovely Poll : And in the cause of anti-monop
- We'll munch the turkeys in the Pall, And graft the long clam on the hop. My sweetest ! I am fond of mush,
- And thou wilt set some out for me ; We'll early sow the current bush, And tap the cranberry-jelly tree.
- We'll pull the wool from off the calf, The cottonwood its fleece shall shed, So at the Winter will we laugh,
- And gayly weed the oyster's bed. We'll blithely hoe the Winter wheat;
- We'll chase the eggs the squirrels lay. And when the Bantam hog shall bleat We'll feed him with some clover hay. All savory game to thee I'll bring;
- The burdock knows my spear is sharp; I'll shoot the dolphin on the wing And hit him in the pericarp.
- Then come, my love, and live with me, And beautify my lonely den, As patient as a bumble-bee,

And busy as a setting hen. VARIETY.

GENERAL COMMISSION AGENTS A western editor has placed over his marriage heading a cut representing a trap sprung, with the motto, trap down, another ninny caught. The Herkimer Democrat asks: "Who is there

GINGER.—California agriculturists are going largely into ginger. They haven't got much beyond the first syllable yet, but hope to do so when with a transit instrument accurately adjusted to the their plants germinate. A man in blouse-scene Paris, of course-presents a bottle of perfume to his beloved, saying: "When you smell this you will regret that your Creator did not make you all nose.' ENGRAVER ON GOLD, SILVER, BRASS, DETERMINED TO MARRY .- Sarah Jane De Foe said she would be married in her old Kentucky home in spite of her father, and some men tied him to the sofa, the crowd walked in, and while he gnashed his teeth, Sarah Jane was wed. His REQUEST .- Peter Van Dike, an old chap who died in New Hampshire the other day, worth $140,000 in cash, requested in his will that no one should sniffle and shed crocodile tears at his funeral, but cover him over and then hurry home to fight over his money." "Your future husband seems very exacting; he has been stipulating for all sorts of things, said a mother to her daughter, who was on the point of being married. "Never mind, mamma," said the affectionate girl, who was already dressed for the wedding, "these are his last wishes."

WELL SUMMED UP .- A young man in Indiana sues his father for loaned money, which the father claims was his own property. The father's counsel, in summing up the case of his client, remarked; "Twice this prodigal returned to the father's house; twice has he been received with open arms; twice for him has the fatted calf been killed; and now he comes back and wants the old

Adversity exasperates fools, dejects cowards, draws out faculties of the wise, puts the modest to the necessity of trying their skill, awes the opulent, and makes the idle industrious. Much may be said in favor of adversity, yet strange it tas no friends.

FORGOT.-A miner who had powder in one tin can, and oil in another, and forgot which was which, went into the blacksmith shop, at the Dunbar colliery, Clearfield County, one day last week, to melt the oil. He set the can, containing three pounds of powder, on the blacksmith's fire and went home, saying that that was the loudest ciap of thunder he had ever heard.

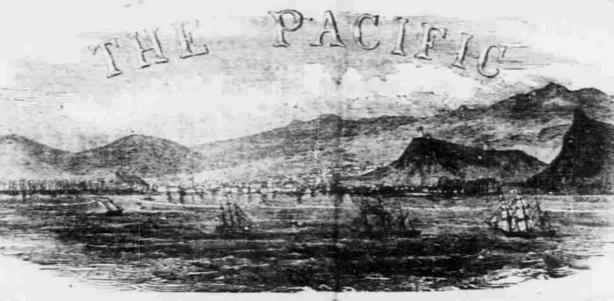

When the king of Portugal addressess his wife publicly, he is obliged to say: "Very high and very excellent Princess D. Maria Pia of Savoy, Queen of Portugal, my dear, well-beloved and highly esteemed spouse, may our Lord hold your majesty's person in his holy keeping." But in the seclusion of their majestic, very high and very excellent private life, his majesty is very apt to run on after this style: "D-you, Maria, where have you put my suspenders?"

A young gentleman in Augusta, Maine, lately made an evening call upon a young lady. It was getting along toward 9 o'clock, when the young lady inquired the time of evening. "Five minutes to 0," was the reply. "How long will it take you to go home?" "Five minutes, I should judge." "Then," said the young lady, "If you start now you will get home just at 9 o'clock." He performed the feat on time.

WHICH IT WAS .- A young woman of a very prudish turn was hurt in a railway accident and taken to the hospital, when the doctor asked her what was the matter with her. One of her limbs, she said was injured. "Well," he returned, "but which limb?" "Oh, I can't tell you, doctor, but it is one of my limbs." "Oh, nonsense!" cried the doctor, out of all patience; "which is it -the limb you thread the needle with ?" "No. sir," she answered with a blush; "the limb I steady than gas, at one-fifth the expense. wear a garter on."

REFUSED .- In Plymouth Church, one Sunday morning, Mr. Beecher refused to give a notice in BEST WINDOW SHADE IN THE WORLD the following characteristic and Beecher-like THIS SHADE HAS TAKEN THE FIRST manner. He said: "I am requested to give a notice which puts me in a little difficulty. I don'f want to and I do want to. The Amaranth Dra- mento, for 1871. matic Association wish to give a benefit in the Manufactured from all kinds of Wood suitable for Academy of Music, next Saturday evening. They wish to pay all the expenses themselves and give Its fixtures work to perfection, and never get out of order. We paint in every color desired; it is also, a perfect imitation all the receipts to the poor of Brooklyn. Now I want the poor to have all the money they can get, but I don't want to advertise a theatrical company, and, therefore, I shall not give the notice.'

Great laughter.] RANSOMED SINNERS .- In a little village in Virginia there lived a family named Ransom. They were not pious people, rather on the reprobate order, and they never went to church. Once, however, during a revival, the family were prevailed upon to attend preaching. When they made their reluctant and tardy appearance the services had begun, and they had scarcely taken their seats when the preacher gave out the first hymn, reading it somewhat thus: "Return, ye ransomed sinners, home." "All right," cried the head of the Ransoms, getting up in a rage, and clapping his hat on his head. "Come along, old woman and gals, we'll go home fast enough and everybody in the old church, knows we didn't want to come.

THE RIDGE HOUSE

KEALAKEKUA BAY HAWAII. THE HAWAIIAN ISLANDS ARE noted the world over for their unrivaled salubrity of climate. Certain localities in the group are espec-ially favored in this way.—The District of Kona, on the leeward side of Hawaii, has long been famed as a place of resort for invalids with bronchital, or lung diseases. With its pure and mild atmosphere, with its absolute freedom from storms or high winds, with its porous soil which, with all its rich vegetation, retains no dampness and yields no malaria, and with an unvarying temperature—that of the American or Southern European June—ALL THE YEAR ROUND, the climate of Kona is one of the healthiest and most luxurious on

The undersigned, at his house at Kaawaloa, a house unequaled in the district for size, cleanliness, commodiousness, and thoroughness of furnishing, is prepared to give boarders excellent rooms and all obtainable comforts in the way of diet, at excellent rooms and all obtainable comforts in the way of diet, at the low rate of $ 5.00 per week. There are fresh water baths
